DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed on 12/30/08 has been considered but is ineffective to overcome the combination references.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In this application it is not clear when the plating process is stop therefore claim is incomplete to form a product as well as the process is not complete understood.

4. Claim 1 as best understood is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Richard M. Ellis.

Richard M. Ellis. Discloses the substantially method as claimed by the present comprising electroplating an electrically conductive substrate 2 wherein the electroplating is performed intermittently using said substrate surface as cathode and a plating metal as anode at a constant voltage between said anode and said cathode (see Figs. 1-6, in light of the discussion at page 6, bottom paragraph). Regarding where repeating application of a voltage between a cathode and an anode and interruption of said application alternately with a voltage time/interruption time ratio of 0.01 to 100, a voltage time of not longer than 10 seconds and an interruption time of not less than 1 x 10-12 seconds. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to incorporate the above electrode plating voltage versus time ratio requirements since applicant has not disclosed that such claimed features are critical, patentably distinguishing features and it appears that the invention would perform equally well with the voltage and time ratio as taught by the prior art reference (see charts as indicated in Figs 1-4 of the reference and 5).

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Further, claim as amended still raise issues of 112 (see above).

This application also contains non elected claims 3-8, 14-21, 27-31, 34-36, 39, 47 drawn to an invention nonelected (these claims are requested to be cancelled or taken other appropriate action).

Interviews After Final

6. Applicants note that an interview after a final rejection will not be granted unless the intended purpose and content of the interview is presented briefly, in writing (the agenda of the interview must be in writing). Such an interview may be granted if the examiner is convinced that disposal or clarification for appeal may be accomplished with only nominal further consideration. Interviews merely to restate arguments of record or to discuss new limitations which would require more than nominal reconsideration or new search will be denied. See MPEP 714.13 and 713.09.

Conclusion

7. It is noted that any amendment made to the disclosure and the claims. Applicant requires to point out the support provide numeral references to the claimed limitations as well as support in the disclosure (i.e., page and line numbers and reference number associated with from the drawings) for better clarity (See 37CFR 1.111 and section 2163.06 of the MPEP).

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
